

Peace poems for Peace Works from Beijing BISS International School

Peace

By Yan Yin Phoi (Grade 9)

Peace, is the silence, the harmony of Emotion, all united and together, understood And forgiven. Where is it? We Call for peace...all together. The Earth will sing with joy with the presence of peace. But it is now

Chaotic, and war s all around us instead.
As human beings
We must learn the meaning of Love, and develop some sort of peace.

Peace

By Gidean Ong (Grade 9)

Gone like the extinct,
Eaten like the fruits,
All that is left is a seed,
Awaiting to be sowed.

Once in the ground,
It might stay,
Or be washed out again,
During rainy days.

Though somewhere else it might be,
It still can grow.

If the gardens don't think the same,
The plant itself will fade away.
All goodness, we should embrace,
Try to make it stay,
Not go away.

Don't let rain nor wind stop it from growing.
Think of it as a lesson
We should all learn from.

Sometimes,
Roots may dry up,
Soil may harden,
Water might be gone.

No one should watch it die,
To make it grow again
We can try.

Letting the plant
Now bare fruits,

Leaving a mark in The elder's head.
Preparing to grow in the newborn's mind.

This cycle should be Known as a square.
Even add some cards
Due to wear and tear.

Instead of keeping it
Safe
We should use it
Enjoy it,
While it lasts.

Just don't let it die away.

PEACE!!

By Shireen Chew (Grade 9)

Peace in our hearts,
Peace in our minds,
Peace now and ever for humankind,
We in ourselves,
Try to find peace,
Peace now and ever we try to keep
We, all have love, we all have peace
Helping each other, we all shall see Though we are different, let us all be Peace now and ever, we all...shall...give.

Peace

By Tom Alexander (Grade 9)

Peace holds the world together
Everyone, except a few wish for it
Ask anyone, they want peace
Can't our leaders see this?
Enter a world of peace
And we can be free.

Our friends and families cry because of war
Not out of happiness.

Every person watches the news
All they do is watch
Many don't protest.

Hope is all that is left.

Peace

By Vaibhav Rana (Grade 9)

Where will we find peace in today's world? In today's world you cannot find peace easily. Somewhere fights and wars are going on. Selfishness makes everyone think about themselves first. Wars occur because of this. Everyone wishes for peace except for selfish people. Jealousy is also another factor as some people are jealous of each other's power and they try to hold on to it. This world would be so peaceful if wars are avoided and people think about what they have instead of thinking about what they don't have.

Peace

By Tam Suthaporn Homecare (Grade 9)

If everybody and every country in this world is friendly to each other, this planet will have peace everywhere. There will be no war, no killing, no conflict or anything bad. People will be happier than today, there will be no more sadness, death or loss. If you want our planet to have peace, everyone should help each other. By trying to solve problems through not using violence but through peace, we will be fair with each other.

Peace

By Victor Wang (Grade 10)

It is valued but eludes the world,
Cannot be made from evil deeds.
It is meaningful in many ways,
To those who find beauty in life.

It is innocuous, pure, and righteous,
But those who chase it have moral dilemmas.
And those who contradict peace,
Are trouble makers and are corrupt.

Peace soothes the aching heart,
Fills the starving stomach
And eradicates suffering, discrimination and conflict,
From the surface of our wonderful world.

Who cannot say that they wish for peace?
It is something we all desire,
Barely an inch away from our grasp,
Yet we are too stubborn to seize it.

Peacefulness

By Pan Gyu Choi (Grade 10)

Peace Peace Peace
Hear the voice of peace
Voice from the darkness
Voice from the cloudiness Silent! Just follow the sound!
It was then...

When the sky was dark
Joy was gone, nothing left,
There was just a painful whisper
Raining all day, all year.

Peace

By Helen (Grade 10)

Cruel wars unfair world everything's under Satan's control.

People dying
Children crying
No hope
No dreams

Peace
5 letters
Meaning love
Dreams
People's rights
Families together
Friendship forever
A word written
Deeply inside our hearts
But it's just a dream,
A dream that can't come true.